Market Overview - Global Economy, Financial and Real Indicators with Eikon* by Benjamin Tin

Date & Time: 1st August 2019 10:30 SGT

The International Monetary Fund cut its global growth outlook for the third time in six months in April 2019 to the weakest pace since the global financial crisis, pointing to Brexit-related uncertainties and trade tensions between the US and China as fueling its downgrade. World trade volumes are falling for the first time since the end of the financial crisis in a sign the global economy is only one more major shock away from recession.

Goals: Market overview, Macro outlook, main themes concern, US economy , top indicators to watch, impact on Asia.

Market Overview - CNY and its Reform Policy* by Benjamin Tin

Date & Time: 2nd August 2019 10:30 SGT

China's tight peg to an appreciating U.S. dollar meant the Yuan's real trade-weighted exchange rate had climbed more than 10 percent just alone in 2014, even as its economic growth slowed and exports slumped then came the sudden near-2.0 percent devaluation of the Yuan on August 11th 2015 suggested Beijing was willing to risk pushing other Asian emerging market currencies lower in turn and brave fresh trade tensions with the United States. In this session, we understand the significant devaluation month in 2015 and the reform policy direction.

Goals: History of Reform, Relationship between Yuan and USD, Interpretation of the new regime, TR/HKSE basket index, CFET index, Mundell-Fleming Policy Trilemma

Market Overview – CNY & Capital Flows* by Benjamin Tin

Date & Time: 5th August 2019 10:30 SGT

Beijing's biggest concern is that a sharp fall in the Yuan would trigger the sort of capital flight that followed 2015 August's surprise devaluation of the currency, which sparked fears the health of the economy was worse than Beijing had let on. Capital outflows, both legal and illegal, have pressured the Yuan. The Chinese currency has depreciated nearly 6 percent against a strong dollar in 2016 until November and many traders are betting on further losses, raising the spectre of more outflows from the $3 trillion-plus reserves.

Analysis on One Belt One Road with Belt Road Initiative Connect and China Price Discovery by Wilson Teo

Date & Time: 7th August 2019 11:00 SGT

China's ambitious global infrastructure investment strategy goes beyond sponsoring roads and railways by influencing the international geopolitical landscape, but as it encounters resistance, its real costs are becoming evident. The initiative's real objectives and multilayered ambitions have been analysed from a broad array of perspectives, but there is a growing awareness that its impact is already being felt far beyond the physical reality of infrastructure construction. As the U.S.-China competition grows across many areas, they are entering a new, uncharted grey area.

This high level of uncertainty for future levels of demand has important implications for both markets and policy. Will oil and gas peak, plateau or plummet in future?

Market Overview - RMB: Trade war tension with China data* by Benjamin Tin

Date & Time: 27th August 2019 10:30 SGT

China's yuan was set for its worst daily fall in nine months on May 13th 2019 as trade negotiations between the U.S. and China ended after President Donald Trump raised tariffs on Chinese goods. The yuan has fallen for six consecutive days and some analysts believe it will breach 7 per dollar in coming months, a level last seen during the global financial crisis. The world's two biggest economies appear deadlocked. Investors are watching to see how Chinese policymakers plan to offset the impact of the stiffer tariffs on both the economy and financial markets, analysts at Citi said. In this session, we will learn more on the market insight and outlook.

Goals: Market overview, CNY devaluation stages, drivers of RMB, PBOC easing trends, measures implemented, market indicators.

Market Overview - Iron Ore and Steel GFMS by Benjamin Tin

Date & Time: 30th August 2019 10:30 SGT

It could be argued that iron ore is in a justifiable bubble, because while the sharp price hike is supported by tightening fundamentals, it's only a matter of time until supply returns and prices gravitate lower. Nothing lasts forever and the current high prices for iron ore are expected to ease as China's steel output reaches a peak this year 2019, but the positive news for miners is that the decline in the world's top producer is likely to be gradual.
